The day I went to fairyland

One day I felt like I was flying up to the sky. I passed the fluffy clouds and passed the rainbows. I found the moon and also the twinkling stars. I was surprised to see a palace made out of sweets. I thought that palaces made out of sweets were found only in stories, but now it was real. Then I saw some fairies coming towards me. I called to them, "Hello." They invited me to come inside the palace. Then I felt as if I was falling from somewhere. Then I realised it was a dream. I had fallen off my bed.

The job I like the most

Everyone needs a job to be successful in their lives. I like to be a teacher when I grow up. That is my dream. A teacher can do a lot of great work for children in the world. Teachers give valuable and important advice when teaching. A teacher must be responsible and needs to have a good education and be kind.

Before I become a teacher, I have to pass my examination, and I have to work hard. I know of many teachers who work with dedication.

To be a teacher I also must try to get high marks at the O/L and A/L examinations. For that I need to get the help of my parents and teachers. If you work hard you can become a teacher. Then you can also be successful in your life.

The unforgettable day in my life

When I was four years old, my father came to my pre-school early, to take me and my sister. We asked my father the reason why we were going home early, but he did not say anything. He just had a smile on his face. We were both very anxious to know the reason.

When we reached our house, there were a lot of people in our house walking here and there.

I heard a crying noise of a small baby coming from one of the rooms in our house. We both were searching to find out the place from where the noise was coming from.

Ultimately we came to know that it was our new born baby brother. He was in my mother's hand, wrapped with a flannel cloth.

Cub Scout

I am a cub scout. I promise to obey my parents. I promise to obey my elders. I promise to do my duty to my religion and my country. I promise to be truthful.

I participated at the 8th Cubbory held in Badulla on March 4, 2007. I got a certificate by participating in the events there. I got my Cub Scout badge that day.

I promise to do my best. I enjoy becoming a Cub Scout.

Public Property

There are two kinds of property in our country. They are public property and private property. Among them private property is not common property. It is useful to only one person. But public property is common property, in other words it is everyone's property. It helps anyone without discrimination.

Everybody has the right and privilege to use public property. But at the same time we have a moral duty to look after public property. We can make use of public property without paying money.

Public property is a valuable resource for every citizen in the country. Some people use public property carelessly. We must make people aware about the use of and the preservation of public property. I think we have to use public property for our comfort, but we also must preserve them for the future generation.

Public property is essential for our lifestyle. We should look after public property.

My stupendous class

I'm in a class called Y6 (M). In class we learn Science, English and Maths, From History and Geography we get loads of facts. Sometimes we play games and have fun, Like in P.E. we run in the boiling hot sun. But some lessons are really boring. When I look around I see people snoring. For Drama we make awesome plays, But we always listen to what the teacher says. For music we sing lots of songs, The hard thing is sometimes we get all the words wrong. And don't forget Kandyan dance, We jump, skip, jiggle and prance. Now this year has passed, But I'll never forget my stupendous class!
