

Lets protect the environment

The environment means all the things including trees, animals and people around us. In addition it is the surroundings where we live. We get so many uses from our environment. But it is sad to say that people pollute the environment without thinking of the future.

People always cut trees. They scatter rubbish everywhere, and they also add harmful chemicals to the water. Then people will not have fresh water for their daily activities.

Apart from these, there are many other ways that people pollute the environment.

In the past people protected the beautiful environment as their mother. They did not cut trees. They did not put rubbish into the water. Therefore they had fresh water. As a result of that people were free from diseases.

As a nature lover, I ask you to please try your best to protect the environment.

Our Founder's Day

On Friday February 8, 2008, we celebrated the Founder's Day of our college. First, monks from the nearby temple came and chanted pirith. It was the 2nd anniversary.

Thereafter, clergy from the church and mosque came to give blessings.

When the religious activities were over, the Chief Guest and the two Guests of Honour arrived. We welcomed them at the main gate by offering betel. We played in the band too. They hoisted the National Flag and the College Flag. Then we played the National Anthem. After that, they lit the traditional oil lamp.

There was a beautiful birthday cake. The prefects of our college cut it, while we sang the birthday song. Thereafter our vice-principal, chief guest and the guests of honour delivered speeches. After that we sang the College Song and the National Anthem.

My pet Bruno

Bruno was a lovely dog
But now he has been sent God
He lives somewhere nice in fog
I love Bruno who lives with Lord

My favourite cricketer

My favourite cricketer is world famous Sanath Jayasuriya. He is one of the best cricketers in the world, but he is not a proud person. He is a silent man. He looks good. He has a round face. He is not a tall person. He has played in both one day and test matches.

My new class

My new class is Grade Four. There are 43 girls in my class. Mrs.

Nirmali is my English teacher. Devindi and Nethmi are monitors.

There is a flower vase on the teacher's table. My classroom is beautiful. The blackboard is behind the teacher's table. The new calendar and the time table are on the wall.

My favourite storybook

My favourite storybook is 'The Naughtiest Girl.' The author of this book is Enid Blyton. In this book there is a school called Whyteleaf. I think that is the best school, that Enid Blyton wrote a series about. She wrote what happens in this school, year after year.

A girl called Elizabeth Allen comes to this school.

At first she is naughty, but she became good. Elizabeth was good and kind. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Allen. Her best friend is Joan. Joan is a good and kind girl. Elizabeth has many friends such as Jenny, John, Robert, Kathleen and Harry, but her best friend is Joan.

Whyteleaf is a mixed school. In this school the weekly meeting is held in the gym. The Head-Girl is Rita and the Head-Boy is William. They collect money and in the last term they evenly divide it among the students. Any grumbles and complaints are brought to the meeting and solved fairly.

They play games and hold concerts. There is a music room to practice music. There is a beautiful garden too. The Head of the garden is John. Elizabeth likes to help him in the garden. There are so many fun things in this school. I like Elizabeth very much, and I like this school and this book too.

War

War is nothing but a hideous calamity
War in reality is very little glory
The only things they do are slaughtering and killing
Filling their hearts with hatred
So is war needed?

Sweeps the strong and leaves the old
Unfit to carry on the race alone
War is such an Evil
Leaving people homeless and avoided
So why is war needed?

As shadows are drawn to hatred
Darkness fills their eyes
All they do is mourn and cry
So let there be harmony and peace
No matter what race, colour or religion
So is war really needed?
