Management Trainees

Marketing / Customer Development / Supply Chain / Human Resources / Finance / IT

As a Management Trainee with us, you will be a part of a global company that adds vitality to millions of people across continents.

Through our leading portfolio of brands, we make people feel good, look good and get more out of life. As an employer, our task is to add vitality to your career. You will have a diverse and challenging global work environment, which will provide you space and opportunity to grow personally and professionally. Our open management style and respect for diversity will give you the space you need to explore new avenues.

Our track record for providing people with dynamic careers is a testimony to our growth. More than half of our Senior Management Team began their journeys as Management Trainees, many of whom have made their mark globally.

Those below 27 years of age, with a second class upper degree or a degree along with a professional qualification and exceptional achievements in extra curricular activities, are invited to apply.
