Be the first to strike!

Sri Lanka's largest selling independent English daily, the Daily Mirror is looking for hardworking, dynamic persons with a proven track record to join its team of

News Editors

Ideal candidates should

- Possess a minimum of 10 years experience as a journalist in a national English newspaper
- Possess a minimum of 5 years experience as a News Editor
- or Deputy News Editor
- Be able to work under deadline pressures
- Be willing to work on shift basis
- Preferred age: between 30 and 50 years

Please email your application to : christophere@admin.wnl.lk, kesaraa@wijeya.lk

Daily*M*irror

FICAC FIJI INDEPENDENT COMMISSION AGAINST CORRUPTION

The Fiji Independent Commission Against Corruption ('FICAC') is an independent statutory body established under the Fiji Independent Commission Against Corruption Promulgation No. 11 of 2007 to investigate and prosecute cases of alleged corruption and bribery. Under Section 5(1) of the Promulgation, the Commissioner of FICAC is subject to the orders and control of His Excellency, the President of the Republic of the Fiji Islands.

FICAC invites applications from gualified persons for the position of Prosecutor and Forensic

In addition to being an equal opportunities employer, FICAC provides a unique opportunity to practice law in a diverse common law jurisdiction, including participating in a number of public law issues. The position advertised is based in the capital city, Suva, which is within one hour to recreational activities and centres.

PROSECUTOR Vacancy no. 02/2009

The incumbent reports to the Deputy Commissioner for providing legal advisory services to FICAC and attending to actions brought by or against FICAC. The incumbent will also be required to attend to negotiations on behalf of FICAC. The incumbent also supervises and assists various subordinate legal officers in the office and will also be expected to play a lead role in the constant review of the legal, prosecution and investigation machinery of FICAC.

QUALIFICATION: Professionally qualified to practice as a barrister and solicitor. Candidates will Walk the second have the capacity to exercise mature judgement.

SALARY: FJD 58.000 - 71.000

OTHER BENEFITS: Accommodation, travel and other benefits subject to negotiation.

FORENSIC ACCOUNTANT Vacancy no. 03/2009

The incumbent reports to the Deputy Commissioner for providing forensic accountancy work The inclumbent reports to the beptive Commissioner not providing intensic accountancy work and address all aspects of financial/forensic investigations. The incumbent will also be required to attend to negotiations on behalf of FICAC. The incumbent also supervises and assists various subordinate Financial Investigators in the office and will also be expected to play a lead role in the constant review of the forensic and investigation machinery of FICAC.

QUALIFICATION: Professionally qualified and have a proven forensic accountancy background. Candidates will ideally have a minimum of five (5) years forensic expertise, experience and a strong academic record. Candidates must be able to provide authoritative forensic financial advice in support of the investigation and proceeding of fenders. The incumbent should have the capacity to exercise mature judgement.

SALARY: FJD 44.000 - 55.000

OTHER BENEFITS: Accommodation, travel and other benefits subject to negotiation.

Applications for the above positions must be made to:

The Deputy Commissioner

Fiji Independent Commission Against Corruption PO Box 2335, Government Buildings Suva, Fiji Islands

Email: george.langman@ficac.org.fj Phone: (679) 3310290; Fax: (679) 3310295

All applications must also include a covering letter, Curriculum Vitae and academic transcripts. Further details on this vacancy and any other relevant information can be obtained from the Deputy Commissioner, Mr George Langman.

ST APPOINTMENTS

A.P.S. Knitters makes steady progress to the top

Weaving and knitting has been an Weaving and knitting has been an ancient way of making clothes as well as a much loved art form for many. Our country too has a long history where the art of weaving is concerned, and until recently weaving was done using tradi-tional methods and techniques, and therefore up until now no one took the trouble to start a large scale local market or an international market for clothes made through knitted fabric. Presently however, the entrepreneurs in our country have entered into the non-traditional methods of knitting; especially budding busiessmen have taken up this challenge and have gone beyond the quest... IIHS is a modern Health Campus, built and functioning to Green standards. Our aim is to create caring, confident professionals out of those aspiring for a meaningful career. We strive to develop the competencies required to serve in international healthcare facilities.

Lecturers

Applications are invited from Consultant Specialists. Medical Officers, Registered Nurses and Paramedical Officers for the above post on full time or part time basis for the following faculties;

Faculty of Nursing

Faculty of Paramedical Sciences

Faculty of Health Management

Please apply on or before the 10th of August 2009

Chief Operating Officer International Institute of Health Science, No. 704, Negombo Road, Mahabage, Welisara Tel: 2951292 / 4975057 Email - info@iihsciences.com_web - www.iihsciences.com frame of traditional knitting methods. We spoke to a young and a dynamic figure in the business field Mr. Kaushalya the business field Mr. Kaushalya Samarasingha, Managing Director of A.P.S. Knitters (PV) Ltd, Maharagama, Mr. Samarasinghe was able to win several certificates for his quality products within a short period of time. A.P.S. Knitters has become a popular name in Sri Lanka since 1988, and company was been bestowed with the Quality Certificate (9001: 2008) in December 2018 (9001: 2008) in December, 2008 "At present, there are about 250 employees in our factory, which is also employees in our factory, which is also equipped with its own sewing section, where high quality t-shirts and uniforms are manufactured. The company was able to expand its production capacity and export their products to the international market, after it entered into an agreement vith the Board of Investment in June. 17.

with the Board of Investment in June, 17, 2009; said Mc Samarasinghe received his higher education in Business Management and is a product of Belvoir International School. Mr. Samarasinghe is a sports entrusiast at heart and one day looks forward to becoming a Racing car driver. While sharing with us the expe-riences he gained from his many victo-ries: he ask not his onnorhing to ries, he also took this opportunity to thank his staff and all workers who extended their support to make his ven-

Excelled a their support to thrace this vert-ture a success. The Directress of A.P.S. Knitters, Mrs. Deepani Samarasinghe also thanked her husband Mr. Anuruddha Samarasinghe and her son Kaushaya, as well as the staff and employees who assisted her to turn all the challenges to victories and to stay in the lead in the field of fabric pro-duction.

stay in the reau man ducting. A.P.S. Knitters produces qualitative fab-rics of 5000 Kgs - 6000 Kgs per day. The company's dye factory at Mattakkuliya is expected to increase its capacity in the future and become the leader in the leader in

Female Advertising Executives/Freelance

Responsibilities To promote and sell the best daily newspaper advertisement space to direct advertisers and media agencies advertisers and media agencies Source and build up advertiser and media agencies base for newspaper advertising Prepare and present proposals and presentations to clients and agencies

Develop and maintain excellent relationships with clients and agencies Submit regular sales reports to your Marketing Manager

Requirements Age between 18-40 years Relevant working experience in media or ad sales will be an added advantage, but not a pre-requisite Excellent written and spoken English is essential Strong communication, negotiation, organizational skills Goot learn player with strong sense of responsibility Confident, self-motivated and bottom-line driven Fresh graduates are welcome to apply

Remuneration Excellent Commission scheme Excellent administrative support Bi-monthly training and meetings

Candidates who fit the above requirements may submit in confidence, an updated resume to <a href="https://www.https://wwwwww.https://www.https