

Is Cricket on your mind at all times?

It is such passion and dedication we're looking for, to give direction and guidance to our roaring lions.

NATIONAL HEAD COACH

Sri Lanka Cricket is looking for a high profile dynamic individual with an impressive coaching track record at international level. He should be a confident and self-motivated person, endowed with a charismatic personality who can inspire team dynamics amongst Sri Lanka's National Cricket team members, unleashing a world of possibilities.

The versatile person whom we are eyeing should have a natural flair for inspirational coaching in a wider perspective, to instill the ongoing winning culture in the national outfit which is regarded as a national asset. Past Cricketers with a sparkling cricketing career and international exposure at the highest pedestals of the game are encouraged to apply, if such candidate's credentials are reinforced by a subsequent international coaching background. By far, he should be a visionary par excellence who could steer the cause of Cricket in Sri Lanka.

The applicant should be able to adapt to the local culture and understand that cricket is a passion and way of life in Sri Lanka. He should also have the ability to identify and develop the abundant talent available in the Country.

An attractive package awaits the right candidate with the right attitude. Coaching experience and qualifications will be an added advantage. Those who are interested in applying may do so on or before 8th August 2011 by e-mail to ceo@srilanka.cricket.lk or by post to reach the below address.
