Can you take Sri Lanka's Aviation Industry to a Higher Altitude?

Head of Marketing

In keeping with its vision to be a prime catalyst in the growth of the national economy, the Civil Aviation Authority of Sri Lanka plans to expand its activities from its current largely regulatory role into a more developmental role to tap the full potential of the aviation industry.

The CAA seeks to appoint a Head of Marketing in fulfilling its vision. The candidate must be able to devise and drive a product and service development and marketing programme based on the new and emerging market opportunities and competitive advantages that Sri Lanka possesses in aviation. The ideal candidate to fulfil the challenge of this position will be a top-notch marketing professional who will have the strategic vision to spot development opportunities and the acumen to create enthusiasm and develop business proposals in driving these opportunities to industry stakeholders including private sector entrepreneurs, international investors and various specialists in the aviation industry.

He or she would report to the Director General of Civil Aviation and Chief Executive Officer in developing the sector and achieving results. The ideal candidate should have experience in the aviation industry and a proven track record in product and market development.

Remuneration: Negotiable.

Qualifications & Experience:

- Academic/professional qualifications in Marketing such as MBA, CIM or Postgraduate Diploma in Marketing
- At least 5 years' experience in a senior position in Marketing
- Aviation experience would be considered an asset
- Experience in successful product or service development or in developing a business
- Proven ability to develop business proposals and implement strategic programmes
- Excellent communications skills in English coupled with highly-developed interpersonal skills
- Strong project management skills with multitasking capabilities

Interested candidates should apply with CV and two non-related referees within 14 days of this advertisement to the address below, mentioning the job title on the envelope or in the title of the email.
