National Council for Mental Health

Vacancy Details

Title: Senior Psychologist

Employer: National Council for Mental Health

Description

The National Council for Mental Health (NCMH) is a pioneering institution in Sri Lanka that works towards fostering community mental health care. Established in 1982, it was incorporated by an Act of Parliament in 1986. It is registered with the Department of Social Services as a Non Governmental Organization and approved as a charity by the Ministry of Finance for tax purposes. NCMH is widely acclaimed for its premier in-patient & out-patient services. In its mission to become the centre of excellence in the development of mental health care in Sri Lanka, the National Council for Mental Health seeks a Senior Psychologist for their Psychological Therapies & Counseling Division. The Sr. Psychologist supervises a triad of activities of the division: Advisory role to the Management Committee on outreach of mental health services; Supportive counseling for personal & work stress; Training & Education. The Sr. Psychologist reports to the Director.

Selection Criteria:

- Master's degree in psychology, with minimum 2 years of counseling and related professional experience
- Strong experience consulting in organizations on individual and workplace psychological health
- Substantial experience giving presentations, trainings and workshops
- Experienced in multi-cultural environments; international experience is preferred
- High level of personal integrity and respect of professional ethics, sensitivity to cultural, gender, and professional diversity
- Highly developed skills for managing multiple, complex boundaries with clients, partners and colleagues and for communicating with sensitivity and tact at individual and senior management levels
- English & Sinhala required; excellent oral and written communication skills. Knowledge of Tamil would be a plus.

Working Hours: Full-time

Location: Borella Resource Centre.
