RESEARCH SOLUTIONS

A British owned international BOI company based in Colombo 3.

We are expanding fast and are looking for bright, young individuals who are competent in navigating their way around the World Wide Web.

Do you know your YAHOO! from your Google?

INTERNET RESEARCHERS

You will be trained to search out talented individuals across all sectors including Financial Services, Technology, Consumer and Life Sciences for exciting executive level career opportunities with prestigious global companies all over the world.

No previous experience is necessary as full & free training will be given.

However, any previous work experience in, ideally, an international business could be very useful. As would any previous studies or qualifications in Business Studies, HR or Marketing.

If you have studied or lived abroad for some time and now want to work on international assignments for recognised global names then we would especially like to meet you.

We are seeking a wide range of talented individuals (age is irrelevant to us). As long as you still have the drive and energy to work in a fast changing and challenging environment, with tight client deadlines and have the personal attributes to climb up the ladder quickly to take on Team Leading and Management responsibilities within a short period of time.

Excellent salaries and career prospects are on offer to the very best!

A very high level of English fluency is required for these roles; including reading, writing and spoken English (these will be tested during the interview process.)

Apply by sending a detailed CV, together with your current salary or expectations, by e mail only please, to careers@gloverdaniels.co.uk

Our website, www.gdresearch.com will give you more information about the company and our range of business research services.
