

Lanka's future CRICKET STARS

EMERGING SCHOOLS

BEST FIELDER

Rohan Fonseka, the AGM Circulation for Wijeya Newspapers presents the winner of the best fielder award in the Emerging Schools category, Rishanth Tudor of St. Patrick's College Jaffna, his trophy.

Deputy Editor - Sports of the Sunday Times S. R. Pathiravithana presents President's College Kotte cricketer Kanishka Perera, the runner-up award for the best fielder in the Emerging Schools Category.

BEST BOWLER

Winner of the best bowler in the Emerging Schools category, Danushka Sandaruwan of St. Mary's College Kegalle, is presented with his award by Rohan Fonseka, AGM Circulation of Wijeya Newspapers.

Roshen Fernando of St. Sebastian's College Katuneriya, the runner-up of the best bowler award in the Emerging Schools category, receives his award from Rohan Fonseka, the AGM Circulation Wijeya Newspapers.

BEST BATSMAN

Sahan Arachchige of Bandaranayake College Gampaha, the best batsman in Emerging Schools category is presented with his award and gifts by Dilshan de Silva of SLSCA.

Father of Lahiru Udara, schoolboy cricketer from St. John's College Nugegoda who emerged best batsman runner-up in the Emerging Schools category, receives the award on the winner's behalf from Dilshan de Silva

BEST ALLROUNDER

Danushka Sandaruwan of St. Mary's College Kegalle became the best allrounder runner-up in the Emerging Schools category. He receives the awards from Dilshan de Silva and C. Gannile of Bata.

The best allrounder Emerging Schools, Lahiru Sanjaya of St. John's College Panadura is overseas. Sanjaya's award is received by his father on his behalf from Dilshan de Silva of SLSCA and C. Gannile of Bata.

MOST POPULAR EMERGING SCHOOLBOY CRICKETER

Sanju Sharuk of Vidyaloka Vidyalaya Galle became the Most Popular Emerging Schoolboy Cricketer 2013. He receives the award from Preethi Viraj de Silva, Director Finance of Wijeya Newspapers.

Lahiru Vimukthi of Sri Sumangala College Panadura became the runner-up in Most Popular Emerging Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013.

Chamika Amarasekara of Sri Sumangala College Panadura was adjudged the second runner-up in Most Popular Emerging Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013.

All-island Most Popular Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year

Wesley College allrounder Basith Muzammil is the All-Island Most Popular Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year. Preethi Viraj de Silva Director Finance of Wijeya Newspapers and Sujith Pathirenne, AGM - Brands of Wijeya Newspapers present the award.

Thurstan College Colombo cricketer Minhaj Jaleel, the runner-up of All-Island Most Popular Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013.

Dushan Hemantha of St. Peter's College Colombo emerged second runner-up of All-Island Most Popular Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013.

Pix by Susantha Liyanawatte and Hasitha Kulasekara

MOST POPULAR INTERNATIONAL SCHOOLBOY CRICKETER

Walid Jiffry of Leighton Park International School became the Most Popular International Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013.

Sasika Rathnathilake of Lyceum International School Nugegoda became the runner-up in the Most Popular International Schools Cricketer of the Year 2013 category.

Chelaka Mallawarachchi of Lyceum International School Wattala was adjudged the second runner-up in the Most Popular International Schools Cricketer of the Year 2013 category. He receives the award from Preethi Viraj de Silva, Director Finance of Wijeya Newspapers.

EMERGING SCHOOLBOY CRICKETER OF THE YEAR

Danushka Sandaruwan of St. Mary's College Kegalle was adjudged the Emerging Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013. He receives the award from Ana Punchihewa, the Chief Guest and Hemaka Amarasuriya, Director of Bata while (from left) Lal Jayawardene (Director Wijeya Newspapers) and Hatta Tutuko (Director Finance Bata) look on.

Cricketer from St. John's College Panadura, Lahiru Sanjaya was adjudged the runner-up in the Emerging Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year category. His father receives the award on his behalf from Ana Punchihewa, the Chief Guest and Vikas Anand, the CEO of Bata.