

Lanka's future CRICKET STARS

The jubilant Richmondite cricketers celebrate after being picked as the best All-Island cricket team.

The day belonged to Cambrian cricketer Kusal Mendis.

Bata-the Sunday Times Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013, Kusal Mendis with his parents.

Bata-the Sunday Times Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2012, Niroshan Dikwella (left) with his successor Kusal Mendis.

Kusal Mendis gets cricketing gears courtesy Bata from its CEO Vikas Anand as (from left) Niroshan Dikwella (Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013), Lal Jayawardene (Director Wijeya Newspapers), Hatta Tutuko (Director Finance Bata), Hemaka Amarasuriya (Director Bata) and Ana Punchihewa (Chief Guest) look on.

Yohan de Silva of Dharmasoka Ambalangoda walked on to the stage for the third time to receive the runner-up award of the Bata-the Sunday Times Schoolboy Cricketer of the Year 2013. He receives his award from Ana Punchihewa, the Chief Guest as Hemaka Amarasuriya (Director of Bata), Hatta Tutuko (Director Finance Bata) the Year 2013) and Lal Jayawardene (Director Wijeya Newspapers) look on.

The distinguished guests, (from left) Hatta Tutuko (Director Finance Bata), Hemaka Amarasuriya (Director Bata), Ana Punchihewa (Chief Guest), Mr. and Mrs. Jayantha Seneviratne and Vikas Anand (CEO Bata).