Hatton National Bank

HNB's history, which began in 1888 as Hatton Bank, is rich in tradition and more importantly, is a statement of the Bank's total commitment to service. Since the Bank's name changed to Hatton National Bank in 1970, mergers and acquisitions have made HNB, one of Sri Lanka's largest private commercial banks. The indisputable strength and stability of Hatton National Bank is complemented by a growing asset base of over Rs. 250 Billion, together with a Customer Centre network of 178 spread across the length and breadth of Sri Lanka. The in-built innovation which keeps adding to the portfolio of beneficent services made HNB the first-ever Sri Lankan bank to garner the prestigious 'Best Retail Bank in Sri Lanka' Award, presented by the Asian Banker magazine, in 2008 - and again in 2009. HNB's flexibility - the ability to change with change - has kept it abreast of technology advancement in the financial industry. We are now looking for dedicated young people who will strengthen our team of IT professionals and set our future goals in motion on a platform of advanced technology.
