Snorkelling in Trincomalee

Michael Mama, on holiday from New Zealand suggested snorkelling. So, we hired snorkelling gear from a shop near Hotel Nilaweli. We tried on our flippers, masks and breathing pipes to see if they fit. Then off we went by boat to Pigeon Islands for my first snorkelling experience.

The one problem with flippers is that we had to walk backwards to move easily. We kept tripping over rocks and corals before reaching the water.

It was lovely to peer underwater... A whole new world down there. We saw dozens of colourful fish: angel fish, cat fish, clown fish and many more darting in and out of the corals. We even saw an eel! A long greyish eel with an electric green line along its back.

Once I struck the reef and cut my leg, but didn't even feel the pain. Finally after an exciting evening we went back to our hotel.

Snorkelling is a great experience, and you needn't know how to swim, as the flippers keep you afloat. So just pack your bags and go to Trincomalee for an out of this world experience!
